

VOLUNTEER INSTRUCTIONS FOR THURSDAY NIGHT SHOPPING

Thursday, February 20, 2020 from 5:30 – 7:30 pm

The Booksale Committee asks that you follow these shopping guidelines (please do not ask for exceptions!):

NEW!! Please wear your 2020 Booksale volunteer t-shirt during Thursday Night Shopping!

General Area:

1. Limit book purchases to 75.
2. Please keep book sets and magazine bundles together.
 - a. Audio/Visual - ALL items count as 1 book of total.
 - b. One encyclopedia set may be purchased per family. Sets consisting of both micro and macropedia are considered one set. A set is counted as one book.
 - c. One reference set may be purchased.
 - d. One bundle of magazines counts as one book; there are 12 magazines per bundle. There is no limit to the number of loose magazines that may be purchased.
 - e. Contents of boxes containing sets (or partial sets) are usually marked on the box beside the box price.
 - f. Two books tied together are $1.00 each, a total of $2.00.

Better Books Room:

Limits are a total purchase of thirty (30) books with a maximum of five from any single category.

Holding Area:

The Holding Area will NOT be staffed Thursday night. Books placed in the Holding Area is done at the shopper's own risk. Shoppers are responsible for their own purchases.

Can I shop after the sale?

YES! Volunteers and representatives from non-profit organizations may choose as many books as they would like for FREE from 6 – 7:30 pm on Sunday, February 23, 2020. After Booksale ends at 5:30 p.m., please exit the building, and re-enter at 6 p.m. or when the buildings are cleared. This is just another way the Friends of the Library give back to the community and show appreciation for volunteers!
