*Member Only Early Shopping tickets are typically mailed in early February, a few weeks before the February Book Sale. For other events, members will check in by member name or by showing their valid membership card during the members only period of the event.

Members will receive a membership card that will serve as a punch card for the discount. The card must be present to obtain the discount. Members will receive 10% off on one transaction per public (no membership required) day of the sale.

^Totes will be mailed the first week of February 2025 to annual Book Lover and Lifetime Members for use at the February Book Sale.

Your membership is a contribution to the Friends of the Library, in support of the Metropolitan Library System of Oklahoma County. You will receive a receipt for your contribution.
